

P2PU SCHOOL OF ED

The P2PU School of Ed is bringing a model of open, community-based peer learning to professional development for K-12 teachers. It's all about hands-on learning driven by each educator's particular needs and classroom situations. It's about connecting, collaborating, and creating, not just reading or studying.

This fall, we are piloting seven courses:

Teaching in Online and Blended Classrooms

(course begins Sept. 26)

Student Engagement

(course begins Sept. 26)

OER in the K-12 Classroom

(course begins Oct. 3)

Differentiating Instruction

(course begins Oct. 3)

Using Web 2.0 and Social Media to Encourage Deeper Learning

(course begins Oct. 3)

Writing & Common Core: Deeper Learning for All

(course begins Oct. 10)

Multimedia and Graphics to Facilitate Deeper Learning

(course begins Oct. 17)
